NAC welcomes opening of Sky view restaurant and bar at Eros Airport

Namibia Airports Company has welcomed the recent opening of the Skyview restaurant and bar at the Eros Airport. This new facility is part of the O-Pensadoor Group and will offer breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Mia Davids, Head: Corporate Communications at NAC expressed her excitement about the enhanced experience at Eros that was now on offer for passengers and all other people who wished to enjoy the Skyview Restaurant and bar. "The new restaurant complements our existing smaller takeaway at Eros and is sure to brighten the experience of clients with a view of the airport and happenings on the tarmac. As NAC we always encourage such ventures as they add value to clients at the airport and enhance the overall airport experience. We invite all clients to come and enjoy the new restaurant which not only offers great food, but also a lounge set-up, television and wi-fi."

Chef Thuti also encouraged everyone to try their food and beverages. He added that he sourced his supplies locally as much as possible, such as sheep, fish and venison and even looked at ensuring that most of it was organic, i.e. grown without any additives. "We are open to the public from 6h30 in the mornings and the kitchen closes at 21h30. Our prices are very competitive and affordable and we look forward to being of service to everyone," added Thuti.

O-Pensadoor opened in new splendour on 31 July 2015.
